Habitat for Humanity of Smith County announces new director of operations

Tyler, Texas- Sherry Skinner has been named the director of operations for Habitat for Humanity of Smith County.

Skinner most recently served as the executive director with Christian Women's Job Corp of Tyler. She has an extensive background in strategic marketing, sales and communications.

She was regional director of sales, marketing and operations at Suddenlink/Altice USA in Tyler. Skinner also has experience at several other communication companies in New York, Indiana and Virginia.

Skinner has an Executive Master of Business Administration (MBA) in marketing and finance from Regent University and a Bachelor of Science in marketing and sociology from Indiana University.

She is a graduate of Leadership Tyler Class 31. Skinner also completed leadership training through the United Way of Smith County and Center for Creative Leadership. She has been very active in the community as a volunteer with First Baptist Church, Gospel Village, Salvation Army, East Texas Food Bank, Multiple Sclerosis Society, United Way, Girl Scouts, Children's Wish Fund, 1 in 3 Foundation board of directors and the advisory board for UT Tyler family nurse practitioner program.

"We are so thrilled to have Sherry join our Habitat team," said Jack Wilson, CEO of Habitat for Humanity of Smith County. "She brings a great amount of experience that will be beneficial to Habitat and our continued growth."

About Habitat for Humanity of Smith County (HFHSC)

Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit organization that makes homeownership possible for low-income working families. The Smith County affiliate was formed in 1989. In the past 30 years, HFHSC has partnered with local volunteers and donors to build 106 homes. Through its home repair program, Habitat has completed over 800 critical repair projects, making it possible for veterans, seniors and the disabled to remain safely in their homes.
