BBB Announces 2020 Awards for Excellence Winners

March 17, 2020, Tyler, TX -The 2020 BBB Awards for Excellence, which was canceled in the interest of public health was conducted online today. BBB presented the BBB Awards for Excellence to six companies and one nonprofit organization who exemplify ethical behavior and display integrity in all aspects of their operations; toward their employees, vendors, customers, and within their community. This year, BBB received 17,000 votes.

“Although we weren’t able to celebrate with our guests in person,” Mechele Agbayani Mills, President and CEO of BBB Serving Central East Texas. “We felt it was important, perhaps even more important in these times, to celebrate organizations who operate with integrity and who can serve as role models for others.

ABOUT BBB®: For more than 100 years, the Better Business Bureau has been helping people find businesses, brands and charities they can trust. In 2016, people turned to BBB more than 167 million times for BBB Business Profiles on more than 5.2 million businesses and Charity Reports on 11,000 charities, all available for free at bbb.org. The Council of Better Business Bureaus is the umbrella organization for the local, independent BBBs in the United States, Canada and Mexico, as well as home to its national and international programs on dispute resolution, advertising review, and industry self-regulation. BBB serving Central East Texas opened their Tyler office in 1985 and serves 19 counties in East Texas.

BBBs are private, self-regulatory agencies that seek the voluntary cooperation of business. When illegal practices are uncovered and the business refuses to cooperate with the BBB, the matter is referred to the appropriate law enforcement agency. Also, BBBs have close working relationships with governmental agencies such as the Federal Trade Commission, with consumer protection agencies, and the State Attorneys General.
