Habitat for Humanity of Smith County announces new director of operations

Tyler, Texas- Carl Watson has been named the director of operations for Habitat for Humanity of Smith County.

Watson has an extensive background in operations, sales, marketing, human resources and management. He worked with the Sherwin-Williams Company, Bishop TK Gorman Catholic School and non-profits.

He's a graduate of Leadership Tyler Class 25. He served as treasurer for the Bishop TK Gorman PTO Board, is a member of the South Tyler Rotary, member of the East Texas Woods and Water Foundation and member of Grace Community Church. He also volunteers with the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo and is on the board for Meals on Wheels.

A graduate of Sam Houston State University, Watson has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Marketing with an emphasis on Management.

“We are so excited to have Carl rejoin our Habitat team,” said Jack Wilson, CEO of Habitat for Humanity of Smith County. “He was the director of the ReStore many years ago, so he knows our brand and brings a lot of experience to our organization to help us continue to grow.”

About Habitat for Humanity of Smith County (HFHSC)

Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit organization that makes homeownership possible for low-income working families. The Smith County affiliate was formed in 1989. In the past 30 years, HFHSC has partnered with local volunteers and donors to build 109 homes. Through its home repair program, Habitat has completed over 1000 critical repair projects, making it possible for veterans, seniors and people with disabilities to remain safely in their homes. For more information, call 903-595-6630 or visit the Smith County Habitat website at www.smithcountyhabitat.org.
